

Notice of Patient Information Practices

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used or disclosed and how you can get access to information, please review it carefully.

River Bend Physical Therapy & Preventative Care's Legal Duty

River Bend Physical Therapy & Preventative Care (hereafter referred to as RBPTPC) is required by law to protect the privacy of your personal health information, provide this notice about our information practices, and follow the information practices that are described herein.

Uses & Disclosures of Health Information

RBPTPC uses your personal health information primarily for treatment, obtaining payment for treatment, conducting internal administrative activities, and evaluating the quality of care that we provide. For example RBPTPC may use your personal health information to contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives of other health related benefits that could be of interest to you. RBPTPC may use or disclose your personal health information without prior authorization for public health purposes, for auditing purposes, for research studies, and/or emergencies. We also provide information when required by law. In any other situation, it is RBPTPC's policy to obtain your written authorization before disclosing your personal health information for any reason.

RBPTPC may change its policy at any time. When changes are made, a new Notice of Information Practices will be posted in the waiting room and patient exam areas. You may request an updated copy of our Notice of Information Practices at any time.

Patient's Individual Rights

You have the right to review or obtain a copy of your personal health information at any time. You have the right to request a list of instances where we have disclosed your personal health information for reasons other than treatment, payment or other related administrative purposes.

You may also request in writing that we do not use or disclose your personal health information for treatment, payment or other related administrative purposes except when specifically authorized by you, when required by law, or in emergency circumstances. RBPTPC will consider all such requests on a case-by-case basis but the practice is not legally required to accept them.

Concerns & Complaints

If you are concerned that RBPTPC may have violated your privacy rights or if you disagree with any decisions we have made regarding access or disclosure of your personal health information, please contact our practice manager at the address listed below. Information will be provided to file a written complaint to the US Department of Health and Human Services upon request. Contact Angela at the number below.
